HAMILTON WOOD TYPE

The manufacturing of Wood Type was the first step undertaken by the Hamilton Manufacturing Company in supplying equipment to the Graphic Arts Industry fifty-eight years ago this year. While today it is a very small percentage of our printing equipment volume, nevertheless, being the cradle of our business, we have never once relaxed in our efforts to constantly improve its quality and accuracy.

We realize that our reputation is wrapped up in every package of Wood Type that leaves our plant. Our reputation for quality merchandise and fair dealings with our customers who have made this business possible is the envy of every manufacturer of equipment in the industry. We are not infallible—we make mistakes—but it never can be said that the Hamilton Manufacturing Company let a customer down by not standing behind its products. We say again, as we have said many times before, "Any Wood Type that is not satisfactory, due to poor material or workmanship, will be replaced without cost to the customer."

This catalog shows only a very small percentage of the faces we can make, but it does show those faces that are most popular and in which the greater part of our business is done. We have patterns to cut over 5000 different styles. So if nothing in this book pleases you—or if you want to add or replace characters for faces you now have which are not shown in this book—write us—it is likely we can meet any need.

This catalog is somewhat different from any we have gotten out for many years. We show more styles of faces—although they are not shown in as many sizes as was our custom in the past. The largest size we show is 10-line, but this size and smaller constitute the bulk of our business. Practically every style can be made in any size up to 100-line. Wood type increases and decreases in direct proportion. For example, characters of 8-line size are exactly twice as wide and the printing face is twice as heavy as 4-line size of the same face. Wood Type, when it reaches you, has a very highly polished finish on its printing surface. Never, under any circumstances, use any patented type-cleaning compound as used on metal type, or this polish will be ruined and the type rendered useless for fine printing. When cleaning Wood Type, merely wipe it off with a rag that has been dampened with benzine. Do not saturate Wood Type with anything—not even benzine. Some of the first fonts of Wood Type made by this company over fifty years ago are still in use and in good condition because they have received proper care.

The printing quality of Wood Type increases as the Wood Type is used. You cannot expect as nice a job of printing with new Wood Type as you can get with Wood Type that has been used for some time. This is because the pores of the wood must be thoroughly filled with ink.

Excellent results will be had with Wood Type using any good ink on bond, book, or newsprint papers. We do not recommend its use in large sizes on enamelled stock unless the finest of ink is used and the ink distribution system on the press is good, in which case fine results can be expected.

HAMILTON CHASE RACKS

PREVENT DAMAGE TO STANDING FORMS

The proper facilities for storing standing forms in chases will save money in reduced costs, out of all proportion to the cost of the chase racks needed. Too often it has been considered "economy" to wait awhile before providing more racks or to call in a carpenter and "fix up" a few racks, but the result has not always been economical.

When the first press proofs reveal damaged type and cuts, due to the improper handling and storage of the forms, the delay may be very serious and the cost of new composition or cuts may be considerable. Nothing is more wasteful in time and money than improper facilities for taking care of standing forms in chases, or live forms waiting for the press.

This line of Steel Chase Racks has been designed so that forms cannot be damaged. The channels are spaced so that one form cannot touch another when in place. Cost of them is so small that merely the expense involved in presstime lost on one damaged form will pay for several of them.

Specifications:

No. 15230: Accommodates 10 cylinder press forms in chases, any size. Dimensions: Width, 19"; Depth, 25"; Height, 30".

No. 15231: Accommodates 20 cylinder press forms in chases, large or small size. Dimensions: Width, 43½"; Depth, 42"; Height, 48".

No. 15235: The four compartments are graduated in depth to accommodate bars of various lengths. Dimensions: Width, 8"; Depth, 25"; Height, 30".

No. 15240: Capacity 10 forms on each shelf; maximum size chase lower shelf will accommodate is 19¾" high. Dimensions: Width, 19"; Depth, 25"; Height, 30".

UNIT GOTHICS

On this page, also on pages 18, 19 and 20, are shown the Hamilton Unit Gothic series comprising seven different widths. In the limited space available we can show only a few sizes of each width, but all can be made in any size desired up to 100-line.

Style No. 718 shown on page 18 is the standard width and on which all other widths are based. Style No. 717 shown on page 18 is 25% wider. Style No. 716 shown on this page is 50% wider. Style No. 719 shown on page 19 is 25% narrower. Style No. 720 shown on page 19 is 50% narrower. Style No. 721 shown on page 20 is 62½% narrower, and style No. 722 on page 20 is 75% narrower.

All characters of the same size in any of these seven widths are on uniform bodies with the exception of caps M, W and I, and lower case letters i, j, f, l and t.

This series of Unit Gothics will be found invaluable in the production of artistic posters as it embodies an even and gradual reduction in widths. If a line set in type of one width does not fit the space available, another width of the same size will always be right.

Wood Type increases and decreases in direct proportion. Example: Eight line size is twice as wide and printing face is twice as heavy as four line size.

WHEN ORDERING SORTS or duplicates of fonts you now have, please do not send one character and ask us to supply "same as sample." We have patterns for thousands of styles, many duplicates except for certain characteristics of some characters, but just enough "different" so they won't match.

If you order by Catalog number, your type will be right for that number; if unable to give the Catalog number then we should have a clear proof of each character it is desired to match; we must have, at least, three clear proofs of: In caps, the H, R, A and S; in lower case, the e, o, s and m; also all the figures, 1 to 0.

PRICE LIST

For convenience we show at right font price tables for various classes of type in sizes 4- to 20-line inclusive. For larger sizes use table at left of this page.

The price of any style of Wood Type depends upon the class that face is in. This catalog of Wood Type clearly shows on each page one of the classification letters L, M, N, O, P, R and S. By reading down the column of prices, in the price list below under any class to the particular size of type wanted (sizes shown in left hand column) the price per character is found. This unit price multiplied by the number of characters in any size font shown on fonting scheme on page 59 gives the total font price.
